

NORMAN KOK

Now:

Field Application Scientist
Southeast Asia, Bio-Rad

Email: normankok@yahoo.com

He has spent the last 18 years in food and agriculture sectors. He is specialized in product development, sensory, food processing, microbiology, food hygiene and food safety. He is well versed in Quality Management Systems like FSSC 22000, HACCP, Cold Chain Management and ISO 17025. He has spent 11 years in government sector Agri-food & Veterinary Authority of Singapore as Manager for Post-harvest department. Working closely with ASEAN countries government and private companies. Moving to Quality Manager in Symrise Pte Ltd for 2 years, to look into quality system for the company. Assisting in internal and external customer audit. He has also spent 4.5 years as Account Manager in 3M Food Safety Department which involved sales and technical training for Singapore and Regional Emerging markets. Currently his role is Field Application Scientist, providing application training, information and support for new and existing products from BIO-RAD for Southeast Asia region.

---

Then:

Masters in Food Science
2003-2006
Oregon State University

Norman Graduated from Oregon State University, USA with a M.Sc (Food Science & Technology). Norman completed his degree in 2006. Thesis title: BIOCHEMICAL AND PHYSICAL FACTORS AFFECTING THE QUALITY OF FISH BALL