

NANCY CHAMBERLAIN

Now:

Retired

Since retiring from the OSU SFL, Nancy built a new house and moved across the river to Naselle, WA. She also was a host mom to Jirawat's nephew who spent the year as an exchange student. She enjoys tending to her garden and spending time with her grandchildren.

Then:

Office Manager
OSU Seafood Lab
1983-2003

Nancy began working at the Oregon State University in 1968 for RO Sinnhuber and TC Yu Seafood Lab. She then moved to Astoria and spent 8 years as a stay at home mom, followed by 2 years at Clatsop County Parole and Probation. In 1983, she was hired to work at the Seafood Lab, following the retirement of Janeice Hul. In addition to her duties as an Office Manager, she was the lab mom to the students for 20 years; offering support and organizing various lab group social events.
