

Forest Walk, Talk and Learn

Saturday, June 23rd • 9:00 - 3:00

Hyla Woods • Timber, Oregon

Spend a day in the beautiful northern Coast Range learning about how Oregon families are caring for their forests, maintaining a healthy ecosystem, and producing high quality wood products for local markets.

This event is jointly hosted by the Washington County Small Woodlands Association and the Build Local Alliance. Whether you are a forest owner, a builder/remodeler, or simply interested in your local forest landscape, this tour promises to be fun and educational. Enjoy a guided, interactive walking tour, a BBQ lunch, a display of locally produced forest goods, and an “Iron Builder” competition!

Register by June 15th at: www.surveymonkey.com/s/FORESTTOUR

Advance registration is REQUIRED. There is no charge for this event, however a cash donation to cover the lunch is suggested.

Tour location: Hyla Woods, owned by the Peter and Pam Hayes family near the town of Timber. Allow 50 minutes travel time from Portland. Specific directions provided upon registration.

Carpooling HIGHLY encouraged, or free bus shuttle available from Pacific University in Forest Grove.

Oregon State University Extension Service offers educational programs, activities, and materials without discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, marital status, disability, and disabled veteran or Vietnam-era veteran status. Oregon State University Extension Service is an Equal Opportunity Employer.