

June 18, 2020

Mint Pest Alert Newsletter

- Willamette Valley -

Integrated Pest Management in Mint Production Systems

A “PAMS” - Prevention, Avoidance, Monitoring, and Suppression framework for mint IPM ranges from proactive to reactive approaches in biointensive to conventional settings. A continuous effort for effective pest management includes integration of cultural, biological, chemical, and genetic techniques for long-term economic and environmental sustainability.

Oregon State University
Extension Service

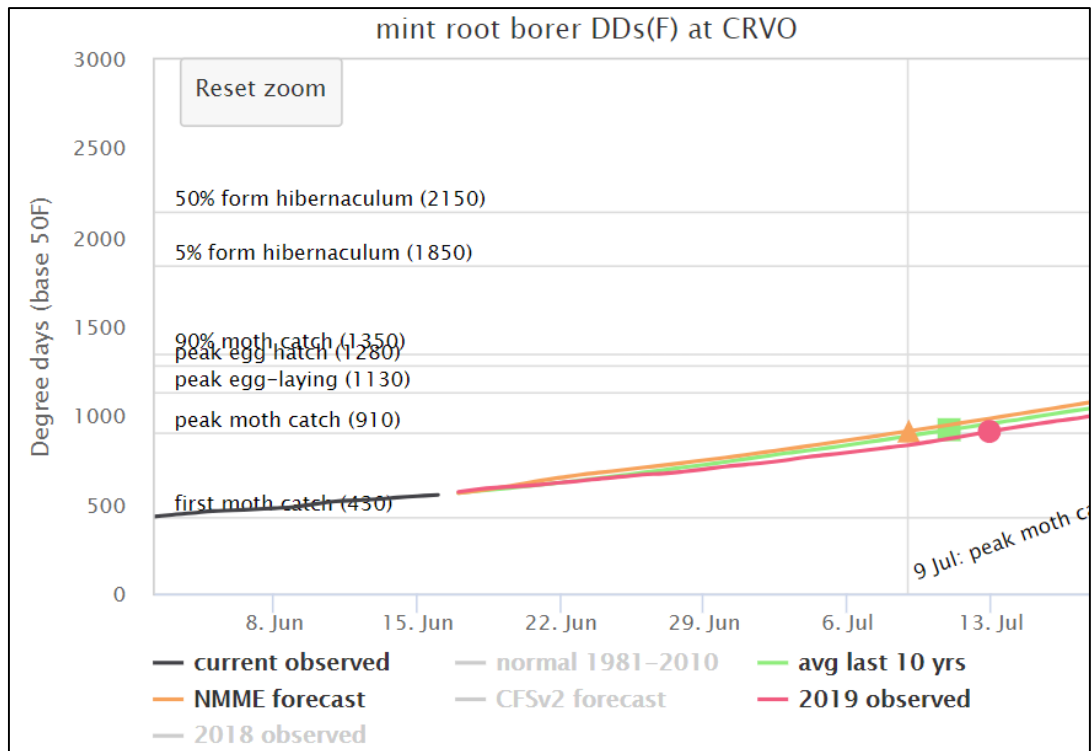

Questions? Contact Navneet Kaur:
Navneet.Kaur@oregonstate.edu

Sponsored by the Oregon Mint Commission

OREGONmint

Mint Root Borer (MRB) Insect Development - Corvallis

- ✧ Accumulated GDD is approximately 6 days behind than 2019.
- ✧ No insects were captured this week. Peak moth is predicted to be July 9th

Variegated Cutworm (VC) Insect Development - Corvallis

- ✧ Peak egg laying is expected on Jun 21. No insects were captured in sweep net sampling this week.

