

Lists of known passwords
 from hacked databases
 are fed into password-breaking tools.

from norpass.com

12345
 11111
 12345678
 qwerty
 guest 123456789
 123456
 password

most common passwords:

use terrible passwords

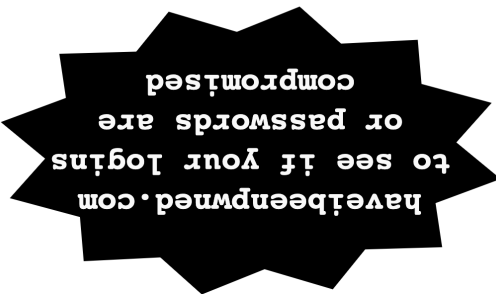

DO NOT

Protect Your Data

Password Edition

If a foe discovers your password to one account, they'll try it on other accounts.
 AND
 variations
 of it

reuse passwords

DO NOT

Learn more
<https://beav.es/defend-dissent>
<https://activistchecklist.org/> <https://www.freetospeakforall.org> photocopy - distribute updated June 2025

12	days	years
10	hours	months
8	seconds	hours
6	minutes
4	INSTANTLY

Time to crack
 your password
 length numbers letters

from hivestamps.io

use long passwords

DO

DO
 use two-factor
 authentication

via text or token or app

+1 for the built-in password manager in your browser passwords like:

 tgp6wbvj%2K)k@5TD3

to create & store
 strong, long, random
 passwords
 that you don't type in yourself

use a password manager

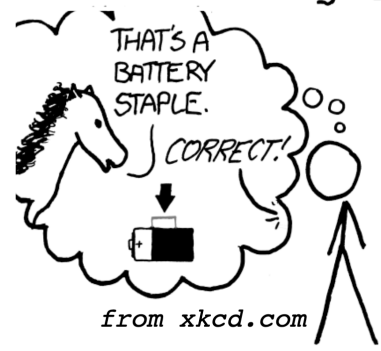

DO

DO
 use passphrases

To protect your password manager and unlock devices.

Random words make an easy-to-remember phrase.
 Make one on dicepass.org correct horse battery staple from xkcd.com